All my questions were answered promptly.

Sue began her insurance career in 2024 when she joined Rothbury. She specialises in domestic clients and values building strong relationships with clients and insurer partners. Sue is a great communicator who enjoys finding solutions and works hard to ensure clients have the best possible insurance for their situation. She has also completed her Level 5 New Zealand Certificate in Financial Services.

Outside of work, Sue enjoys challenging herself by running on Christchurch's scenic trails and participating in local running events.
