Sophie started both in the insurance industry and with Rothbury in 2021. She has recently joined the Employee Benefits team. Sophie excels at communication and prides herself in making long lasting connections with clients and colleagues. She has a Bachelor of Commerce from University of Otago and is a qualified NZCFS Level 5 Life, Disability and Health Adviser.

When she's away from the office, Sophie can be found cooking up new recipes in the kitchen or hanging out with family and friends. She loves living and working in the Auckland area, being so close to so many amazing beaches and walks. Sophie had singing lessons for 10 years growing up and has two older brothers.
