I would just like to say it's a very friendly service.

As this was our first contact with Alicia I found her to be very thorough with her research regarding our policies and other inquiries we have made over the last year.

In my experience of the past 12+ years this is the first time I have had some accuracy in the coverage that we need for the business, I am so happy to have made the call to Alicia and her team, first class. Clear, concise, on point and right on target, even below budget expectations which is great.
