Erina began her career in the insurance industry in 2023 and joined Rothbury in 2025. She has experience working in the claims department for a domestic insurance company, providing emergency assistance to clients through external stakeholders and handling the lodging and processing of claims. Erina is known for being efficient, friendly, transparent, and reliable. With a solid background in stakeholder, portfolio, and people management, she is looking forward to building her knowledge further, meeting new people, and collaborating with her team to exceed the expectations of new and existing clients.

Outside of work, Erina enjoys travelling, hiking, and spending time at the marae with her family. She loves the scenic morning runs, countryside lifestyle, and the ability to grow her own produce where she lives. Erina and her family are actively involved in voluntary work within their community, always looking for ways to help and give back.
