Halayna began her insurance career in 2022 with Covi before joining our Auckland Broking branch in 2025. She takes pride in building strong client relationships and delivering tailored solutions while continuously expanding her expertise in the commercial sector. Known for her keen attention to detail and strong problem-solving abilities, Halayna is a dedicated and valued member of our team.

Outside of work, Halayna loves sharing good food and wine with friends and family, especially while enjoying a beautiful view or sunset. When she's not out socialising, she's cozied up on the couch with her dog, enjoying a movie. Deeply passionate about her culture and home, The Cook Islands, Halayna is also fluent in Te Reo Māori.
