What Hannah's clients have to say

Auckland Apr 2026

I was stressed, having to make a claim. Hannah has been very helpful and made it easy for me. She is a pleasant person to have as a staff member. Helpful, polite, and appears not to get stressed. Great to speak to and is knowledgeable.

Thank you very much for helping me. I'm not very good at computers, but today I had to go and found the survey. I'm very happy and look forward to hearing from you. Thank you.

It's hard to make the service that we receive better, as it is seamless and effortless in all respects. Just keep aiming high!

I think all was undertaken well. Hannah helped guide me through the process, transferring the required level of detail. Very patient with me as I was not familiar with how to do that. We got there with her support.

Quality of service and efficiency are important, and I received both.

Hannah started in the insurance industry and joined Rothbury in 2024. She is a patient and empathetic individual with a strong work ethic and great organizational skills. Hannah comes with a range of experience in customer service and problem solving roles, and is committed to delivering exceptional service.

Beyond the office, Hannah enjoys exploring New Zealand both local and afar, whether it's camping, going to the beach, shopping, or going out for a bite to eat. She loves Auckland for its abundance of activities and the vibrant community and enjoys attending local concerts and events. In her personal time, Hannah is a keen cook, always eager to try new recipes.
