Rotorua Nov 2025

Jodi responds to emails or phone calls promptly and is always friendly and explains things when I don't understand.

Jodi started in the insurance industry in 2015 and joined Rothbury in 2023. She has an extensive wealth of knowledge in Domestic insurance and has a drive to always achieve the best results for each client. She has a bubbly personality and takes pride in building strong client relationships. Jodi holds her Level 5 certificate in general insurance.

When she's out of the office, Jodi can usually be found spending time with her family and supporting her children in various sports. An avid reader, she is partial to curling up with her latest read whenever she can find the time. Jodi is also an amateur painter, gardening enthusiast and loves to bake! She enjoys the Pukekohe region for its small town vibes and community spirit.
