Auckland May 2024

Kayden was great to talk to and clearly gave me all the required information.

Kayden started in the insurance industry in 2021 and joined Rothbury in 2022. He is an honest and proficient problem solver who is dedicated to providing a seamless insurance experience. He strives to build key relationships with clients, and is always eager to learn new personal skills.

In his spare time, Kayden enjoys riding his motorbike, and continually searching for his next adventure. He loves Auckland city for the wide range of culture and diversity and never-ending cafe selections. Kayden is an indoor plant enthusiast with over 100 houseplants and he's also a qualified men's barber!
