What Sam's clients have to say

Auckland Oct 2025

Poor Sam has the patience of a saint, particularly when chasing me up for information. I appreciate his service.

Auckland Sept 2025

He followed up well and made sure renewal was done before the renewal date - didn't want it to just roll over.

Auckland Aug 2025

Sam certainly went the extra mile to get me competitive quotes. He was extremely helpful.

Auckland Aug 2025

Competent and easy to deal with.

Auckland Aug 2025

Sam was excellent.

Auckland Jul 2025

Helpful and efficient.

Sam began his insurance journey with Rothbury in 2024. With a primary focus on Domestic clients, Sam is known for his creative and lateral thinking and enjoys learning about various aspects of the insurance industry. He has a Conjoint Bachelor's Degree in Arts and Commerce, majoring in Human Resources and Psychology, with minors in Accounting and Education. He is working towards his Level 5 Certificate in General Insurance.

Outside of work, Sam is deeply passionate about football, especially as a devoted Liverpool fan, following many of their matches. Having previously lived and studied in Christchurch, he returned to Auckland to be near friends, family, and his childhood football club. Sam loves giving back by coaching young players and is keen to enhance his skills by pursuing a youth football qualification.
