What Sammie's clients have to say

Waikato Jul 2025

She has been great.

Waikato Mar 2025

Sammie was most helpful through my insurance review and my recent claim. She was most professional and efficient.

Waikato Mar 2025

All areas of our insurance were covered to our satisfaction and around the costs we had estimated. Sammie followed up on all details that were discussed in a professional manner.

Waikato Mar 2025

We received timely and clear information.

Waikato Feb 2025

Efficient and friendly.

Waikato Jan 2025

Prompt and clear information, followed by quick decisions. She is a good communicator too.

Sammie began her career in the insurance industry in 2019 and joined Rothbury in 2024, bringing with her a passion for building strong relationships and making the complexities of insurance easy to understand. Sammie has earned her Level 5 Certificate in General Insurance, which has deepened her expertise and fueled her enjoyment for guiding clients through their insurance needs. Her approachable manner and commitment to clear communication makes her a trusted Domestic Broker.

Outside of work, Sammie cherishes time spent with family and friends, whether it's embarking on camping trips or hiking trails. Paddleboarding, martial arts, skiing, and beach days are just a few of her favourite hobbies. Sammie's love for the Waikato stems from its hot summers and its central location, offering easy access to the beauty of the North Island. Her high-energy Border Collie X Golden Retriever is a constant companion on her adventures, especially when they're participating in Dog Agility!
