Sarah started in the insurance industry, with Rothbury in 2025, bringing with her a strong background in commercial sales, procurement, and sales support. She has worked with leading nationwide businesses across industries such as construction and material supply, where she developed a reputation for building strong client relationships and delivering consistently high levels of service and support. Her success is driven by a keen attention to detail, a strong work ethic, and a commitment to achieving efficient results.

Sarah has called Queenstown home for the past six years and enjoys making the most of the region's many activities. Outside of work, when she's not studying, she can often be found at a Pilates class or the gym, snowboarding, caring for people's fur babies, or exploring local trails. She loves discovering all that New Zealand has to offer, from its mountains and beaches to the latest food spots in the city.

Sarah is currently working towards her Level 5 Financial Services qualification.
