Syd was exceptionally helpful and professional throughout our interactions. He demonstrated empathy and genuine care, which truly set him apart. He holds both his work and his clients in high regard. His dedication, responsiveness, and thoughtful approach, all displayed with such sincerity, made the process smooth and reassuring.

Sid started in the insurance industry in 2023 and joined Rothbury in 2024. He prides himself on helping clients to find suitable coverage for them and providing peace of mind that their insurance needs are taken care of. Sid always stays informed about the latest insurance products and strives to build long-term relationships with clients, earning their trust through reliable service and support.

Away from the office, Sid enjoys travelling, reading and listening to music. He is always keeping up to date with the Financial Market news and enjoys all things sports, even dabbling in playing some football and badminton!
