It was the first time a broker had taken the time to meet me in person over coffee and had a conversation. A day or two later everything was sorted. That is exactly the service I like.

Ursula is excellent to work with and understands our needs regarding insurances - we love working with her.

Ursula was fantastic. Very responsive and looked for the best possible solution for us without pushing us to an alternative that may have been more expensive. Also very compassionate due to a family challenge. Without hesitation, I would highly recommend Ursula.
