Works Insurance

LOOKING TO RENOVATE YOUR HOME?

Are you planning on:

- Renovating or redecorating your home
- Doing some DIY
- Undertaking any of the following activities:
 - Removing the roof or part of the roof on your home
 - Structural alterations to your home
 - from replacing the benchtop in the kitchen to removing load bearing walls
 - Extending the home beyond your existing floor plan

Did you know that the above activities may fall outside the scope of cover under your existing home insurance policy.

HOW CAN INSURANCE HELP?

With the appropriate Contract Works insurance, you can enjoy peace of mind knowing you are adequately protected should the unexpected happen during the building process.

If you're considering a renovation or alteration to your home, no matter how small or large, contact your Rothbury broker to find out if your existing home insurance policy will protect you, or if you need Contract Works insurance to cover any unexpected event.

You may need Contract Works Insurance.
