SPECIFIC CONDITIONS RELATING TO NOTICES AND DISPUTES:

The initiator is required to give you a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit in a series of direct debits no less than 10 calendar days before the date of the first direct debit in the series. The notice is to include:

- The dates of the debits, and
- The amount of each direct debit.

If the initiator proposes to change an amount or date of a direct debit specified in the notice, the initiator is required to give you notice no less than 10 calendar days before the change.

For customer-initiated payments the initiator may only send a direct debit if you have:

- Asked the initiator to send it, and
- Agreed the amount of the direct debit.

The initiator is required to give you a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit no less than the date of the debit.

You may ask your bank to reverse a direct debit up to 120 calendar days after the debit if:

- You do not receive a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit from the initiator, or
- You receive a written notice but the amount or the date of debiting is different from the amount or the date specified on the notice.

If the bank dishonours a direct debit but the initiator sends the direct debit again within 5 business days of the dishonour, the initiator is not required to give you a second notice of the amount and date of the direct debit.
